

Harrison Paradoxical Leadership Competencies

— Everyone knows that leadership competencies are essential — for an organization to succeed

However, leaders often...

- do not fully understand what leadership competencies actually mean
- are not aware of how their behaviors impact others
- believe their own strong characteristics are strengths, when in fact some are actually "derailers"
- do not know how to adapt their behaviors in different situations to improve leadership effectiveness

— Leadership deficiencies do not show on your balance sheet, — but dramatically impact it by...

- creating disharmony and costly employee turnover
- causing employee conflicts which hinder the organization's ability to compete
- damaging your company's reputation, thus making talent acquisition more difficult
- stifling innovation, creativity, and employee engagement
- failing to establish internal talent pipelines by hoarding and suppressing talent
